Your Worship,

Thank you very much for an interesting and substantial conversation we had last week.

It was a great pleasure to talk to you!

Let me once again sincerely thank you, the City Hall and all Saskatoon residents for the decision to lend a helping hand to Saskatoon's twin city of Chernivtsi.

As the Russian invasion continues, Ukraine's humanitarian needs are on the rise. Chernivtsi will see more and more refugees coming from the Eastern and Southern parts of Ukraine.

Therefore, we would greatly appreciate if you could further continue helping Ukrainians.

As a follow-up of our phone talk please find enclosed the list of Ukraine's humanitarian essentials which we would highly appreciate if you could consider.

Public manifestations of Saskatoon's support for Ukrainians and Chernivtsi, in particular, are equally important.

I believe this is the very time when the strength of friendship and solidarity among the people of good will, as well as the spirit of town twinning are put to the test.

Please rest assured my team is always at your disposal should any issues arise with respect to humanitarian assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Ambassador-Designate
Yuliia Kovaliv
